In the News: More galleries for White Street

June 7, 2019 • Arts & Culture, Real Estate, Shopping

LISA SCHIFF "GALLERY" FOR WHITE

Art Forum is still reporting that art advisor Lisa Schiff will open her un-gallery gallery at 45 White Street. This news goes back to December and is still filtering through the art world. (Journal Gallery is also open at 45 White, though more on that soon.)

PENTHOUSE FOR RENT

Bloomberg reports that expensive apartments are increasingly being rented, not sold. "New leases for the borough's priciest units, costing at least $10,000 a month, jumped 16% in April from a year earlier to 149, while agreements declined for the market as a whole, according to a report Thursday by appraiser Miller Samuel Inc. and brokerage Douglas Elliman Real Estate. The median rent in that upper tier climbed 3.9% to $13,995."
